

Emanuel Fleuti
Head of Sustainability & Environment
Zurich Airport AG

- ↗ Emanuel Fleuti has been the Head of Sustainability & Environment of Zurich Airport since 1990. He is responsible for all environmental aspects excluding aircraft noise, with particular expertise in sustainability, environmental management, air quality and climate change.
- ↗ He has been participating in several international programmes like ICAO's Committee on Aviation Environmental Protection (CAEP) or the current European AVIATOR project.
- ↗ He has chaired the environmental committees of ACI EUROPE and ACI World and supports other airports and aviation organizations through consulting.
- ↗ Emanuel Fleuti has a background with a MSc in Geography.