

Luca Menozzi
Director, Thematic Research
at Julius Baer

- Luca Menozzi is a Director at Julius Baer, a Swiss private bank based in Zurich.
- As a Thematic Research Analyst responsible for the «Digital Disruption» theme, he focuses on the impact of technological innovation on the global economy and specifically he covers themes such as cloud computing, AI, digital commerce, cybersecurity and automation and robotics.
- Prior to joining Julius Baer in Zurich, he worked in London for Ninety One Asset Management where he was an equity analyst in the Multi Asset team and for Bank of Montreal Asset Management where he was as an investment analyst covering multiple asset classes and sectors.
- Luca Menozzi started his career in a private bank in Milan and obtained a bachelor degree and a master degree in Economics and Finance from Bocconi University in Milan (Italy).