

Miriam Göbel
Zoo Zürich AG-Curator Primates

- Miriam Göbel, curator at Zurich Zoo, has studied biology (B.Sc.) at the University of Mainz, and ecology and evolution (M.Sc.) at the University of Frankfurt.
- For her master's thesis, she observed primate communities in Peru at the nature reserve and research station ACP Panguana.
- After working for Panguana, she worked for several zoos in Germany (Opel-Zoo, Frankfurt Zoo, Allwetterzoo Münster) before moving on to Zurich.
- She is vice-coordinator of the European ex-situ program (EEP) for orang-utans and writes a PhD about the welfare of small mammals in zoos.