

Thomas Kagerer
CEO, Vlinder Austria GmbH

---

- Thomas Kagerer is an experienced leader in impact investing and philanthropy with over 25 years of international experience. He is currently CEO of Vlinder Austria GmbH, where he leads large-scale mangrove restoration projects in Africa and Asia, aiming to restore 30,000 hectares by 2030 and create 25,000 local jobs.
- Previously, Thomas was a Partner at LGT Venture Philanthropy, where he co-led a global team and deployed over USD 50 million in funding to social organizations across Africa and Asia. His work focused on health and education, including pioneering investments in Liberia's public education system and South Africa's first Social Impact Bond.
- He began his career at BMW Financial Services, holding leadership roles in IT and operations. In addition to his professional work, he co-owns a dance school in Zurich and has led child welfare initiatives in South Africa.