

Rikkert Reijnen
Wildlife Security Advisor, IFAW

- Rikkert spent the past 25 years working for and founding non-governmental organizations protecting wildlife across the globe.
- His role is to navigate and unite complex stakeholder networks – from government institutions to high-net worth donors to field technicians – around community-based conservation initiatives.
- Currently he serves as an independent advisor to the executive office of IFAW, with a specific focus on landscape conservation in East and Southern Africa.
- Rikkert is also involved in a tech start-up aiming to accelerate conservation financing
